

Maintenance Tech

Dunlop Protective Footwear is the global market innovation leader in protective footwear for the Food, OGM, Industry and Agriculture marketplaces. We manufacture boots in our three production locations in Havre De Grace, Maryland, Raalte, Netherlands, and Leria, Portugal. Our continuous innovation combined with a solid dose of handcraft, makes the best working boot in the world that gives you the safety and comfort you deserve.

The Maintenance Tech constructs, maintains, and tests mechanical equipment, machinery, and components. Identifies parts or machines that need new parts or need to be replaced and places orders as necessary. Inspects, repairs, installs, modifies, and maintains electrical/electronic systems, circuits and equipment

Responsibilities include:

- Repair and maintain Production Equipment
- Repair and maintain Systems other than Production Equipment
- Perform Preventive Maintenance
- Electrical troubleshooting
- Perform additional duties as assigned

Education and Experience:

Applicants must have technical competence in all aspects of machine repair to include: Strong Electrical, Mechanical, and Hydraulics. PLC knowledge and prior experience with injection equipment is a plus

- High School Diploma or Equivalent
- 5+ years of Work related experience in a Maintenance.
- Experience in electrical installation
- Experience with plastic injection molding machines a plus
- Experience managing AM / PM programs